
GOVERNOR GENERAL'S LITERARY AWARDS

The Governor General's Literary Awards recognize books by Canadians regardless of where they were published. There are several categories: fiction, poetry, non-fiction, children's text, illustration and translation. Until 1987, the award was known as the Canada Council Children's Literature Prizes. Up to 1959, only English books were eligible. French authors could receive the award if their work had been translated and published in English. For more information see the Canada Council for the Arts web site:
